

SUPER FUN CHRISTMAS CHECKLIST FROM RATEHAWK

Simple, joyful, and ready to supercharge your holiday spirit!

- Decorate your desk with super bright Christmas lights — bright enough that your colleagues or even neighbors think you are trying to guide Santa's sleigh to the office or home office.
- Practice saying "Happy holidays!" in five languages. This empowers your global holiday spirit, while possibly making your coworkers question your sanity.
- Wear a Christmas sweater with a big photo of your colleagues (or clients!) printed on it, so that they can feel your love everywhere, offline and online.
- Create a Christmas playlist with travel sounds, such as ocean waves, snow crunching, and plane safety announcements — supercharge the office with around-the-world vibes.
- Add glitter to all travel documents, because nothing says "Happy holidays!" like clients discovering glitter in their shoes two weeks later.
- Wrap your computer mouse like a Christmas gift, so every day starts with a tiny unwrapping party. Productivity may drop, but happiness soars.
- Update your out-of-office message with something like: "I'm inspecting hotels at the North Pole, can't talk. Wait for great prices!" RateHawk will cover you here!
- Change your phone number before your clients fly away for the winter holidays, so you can enjoy true peace and no surprise "urgent" calls. Just kidding — never do that.
